

Can Ogutçu

Investment Officer
Energy Charter Secretariat, Brussels

- Can has been working in the energy sector for more than 5 years both as a banker and analyst in the private sector and as an international organisation staffer.
- At the Energy Charter Secretariat, based in Brussels, he is currently in charge of relations with observer and non-member countries, particularly for investment climate issues. He supports non-member accession to the 54 member State Energy Charter Treaty.
- Can has actively participated in the G-20 Energy Sustainability Working Group Meetings in 2015 dealing with the access to affordable energy and the need for investments in the energy sector despite commercially and legally challenging environments.
- Previously he was working in the banking sector in the Emerging Markets Mergers and Acquisitions team of Rothschild & Cie in Paris, working on large scale energy projects in the MENA and the CIS regions.
- He is a law graduate of the London School of Economics and Political Sciences, UK. Can writes extensively on new energy transitions, investment and access to clean, affordable energy.
- His recent G-20 publication on “Access to energy for Sub Saharan Africa” and an op-ed on “Enhancing global security partnerships to address new risks and challenges” can be accessed respectively at http://www.energycharter.org/fileadmin/DocumentsMedia/Occasional/Niger_Energy_Sector_FR.pdf and <http://newadmin.hurriyetdailynews.com/enhancing-global-security-partnerships-to-address-new-risks-and-challenges-.aspx?pageID=238&nID=82556&NewsCatID=396>
