

Mr. Kriston has a master degree in finance/accounting from Corvinus University, Budapest, Hungary. He began his career at KPMG as an auditor in Germany. Later he worked in corporate finance for KPMG and Deloitte as a consultant in Hungary. In 2011 he joined MVM Hungarian Electricity Ltd. From 2012 he was the head of the Business Development and Acquisitions Department. As of 1 October 2013 he was appointed as deputy CEO of the Hungarian Gas Storage Ltd., which had been previously acquired by the MVM Group from E.ON. He is responsible for several non-engineering areas such as finance, accounting, legal, IT as well as for sales and regulatory.