

Svetoslav Benchev

Mr. Svetoslav Benchev is the chief legal advisor of the Bulgarian Petroleum and Gas Association. He joined the team of the Association in February 2010.

Mr. Benchev is author of several articles in the field of the European tax policy and double taxation and numerous publications concerning the energy sector in Bulgarian periodicals.

Svetoslav Benchev graduated from National Lyceum for Ancient Languages and Cultures “St. Constantine Philosopher” in 2002. He continued his education in the field of European and International law in the University of Strasbourg. Mr. Benchev obtained a LLM in “European litigation” in the University of Luxembourg and then specialized in the European Court of justice in Luxembourg. He also obtained a LLM in “Intellectual and industrial properties law” from the Center for Research of the intellectual property (CEIPI) in Strasbourg.

Mr. Benchev worked in the private sector in France as legal adviser in the field of European law and intellectual property. He is co founder and honorable member of the Association of the Bulgarian Students in Strasbourg.