

Dr. Christos Papadopoulos
Vice President, Solutions (EMEA)
Energy Exemplar

Dr. Papadopoulos has 30+ years full Research & Academic experience accompanied with a related multiyear Industrial and Business Development experience in the wider Energy Technologies & Energy Markets Sectors and in particular in the fields of Oil, Natural Gas, Alternative Fuels, Thermo-Fluids & Power Technology Management & Economics, Energy Engineering and Financial Mathematics & Computing, Operational Research, Fundamental & Legal Metrology, Measurements' Management (Smart/Intelligent/Complex) and Demand Forecasting, Supply Chains & Physical/Financial Assets and Portfolios Valuation, Optimisation & Hedging and in Energy Enterprises' Uncertainty/Risk Analysis, Modelling and Data Quality Management.

He currently Leads Energy Exemplar's Solutions team across the EMEA region to support the end to end process from presales, sales through to training and implementation of customer focused product solutions, Supports New business, innovation in new products and New services development and execution for the region and Manages key customer relationships, participating in the closure of strategic opportunities.