

Roxana Caliminte, Deputy Secretary General, Gas Infrastructure Europe

Roxana Caliminte is the Deputy Secretary General of Gas Infrastructure Europe (GIE), the association of the European gas infrastructure operators, including gas pipelines, storages and LNG regasification terminals. GIE has 70 members from 26 European countries. Prior to joining GIE, she worked in the Romanian Parliament as an advisor on economic and international relations and for the Romanian gas transmission operator Transgaz, where she was responsible for the company's engagement with EU and governmental bodies. Roxana holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration in German language from Bucharest Academy of Economic Studies, with exchange semesters in Germany and Russia. Since 2020, Roxana is assisting EU-Russia Energy Relations.