

Matteo Bardotti, West South Europe Offshore Senior Key Account Manager Marine & Offshore, Lloyd's Register

Matteo Bardotti has a progressive 15+ years professional experience in the Energy Sector, mainly working for a variety of specialized Service Providers involved in Worldwide Projects and Global Operations, ranging from Underwater Installation (Diving, ROV, Survey and Post-Trenching) to Marine Transportation (Offshore Support Vessels), Site Construction Supervision, Inspection and Consulting Engineering Services.

Since 2016 he has been directly involved in Compliance and Third-Party Services with different roles and in a variety of geographies including South-East Asia & Australia, Middle East and India, Americas). In October 2021 he joined Lloyd's Register EMEA and covers the role of West South Europe Offshore Senior Key Account Manager, supporting Clients in delivering reliable Offshore Projects and Safe Assets. In his current role he has the responsibility for the classification, certification and verification services for new or existing offshore assets, related material and vendors packages activities.