Theo Kelsey

Senior Research Analyst, European Gas & LNG Markets
Wood Mackenzie

Theo Kelsey is a European gas market specialist with Wood Mackenzie, primarily concentrating on creating strategic analysis of natural gas flows, demand, and prices. Since joining Wood Mackenzie in 2023, Theo has created short- and long-term outlooks spanning from month-ahead to 25+ year forecasts. His contribution to global market scenario analysis delivers key insights to Wood Mackenzie's client base. Theo has focussed extensively on assessing the UK and Turkish natural gas markets, developing topical reports to evaluate and guide client investments or market positions.
