YAVUZ AYDIN- Biography

Yavuz Aydin graduated from Istanbul Technical University Mechanical Faculty as Aeronautical Engineer in 1981. He has worked in Turkish Air Force and Ministry of Defense for 18 years in aircraft and engine overhaul facilities and project management departments in Turkey and F-16 Aircraft System Program Office in USA.

Aydin joined General Electric Power Systems in 1999 and has become Region Services Sales Leader in 2003. He has then assumed Account Director role in 2007 to cover Turkey, Israel and CIS countries.
During his 17 years of GE career, Aydın has worked or actively involved on natura gas power generation projects totaling 7200 Megawatts in Türkiye and 3750 MW abroad. Those include power generation, cogeneration and district heating projects.

Aydin left GE in Jan2017 and became major equity partner of ENERKO Ltd of Turkey. Enerko works in power and cogeneration projects as consultant.

He is currently Chairman of COGEN-Turkish Association and member of Executive Board of COGEN WORLD COALITION (CWC) .