

Bio/CV:

Christian Filippitsch is a competition lawyer based in Brussels specialized in all aspects of EU and international competition law. Christian's extensive experience includes advising on mergers, joint ventures and public takeovers, compliance issues and defending clients in the course of cartel investigations and in regulatory matters. He represented clients before the European Commission, the German and Austrian competition authorities in a number of industrial sectors, including natural resources, electronics, banking, pharmaceuticals, chemicals and petrochemicals. He has a special focus on energy matters. Christian is a frequent speaker on conferences on the energy sector.