

Cristina is a Senior Lawyer with Radu si Asociatii SPRL (the law firm affiliated with EY Romania). She is a lawyer with the Bucharest Bar and has previously worked with Allen&Overy Romania. She holds an LLB in law from the University of Bucharest and an LLM in EU Competition Law and Regulation from the University of Amsterdam. Cristina's experience includes providing legal support in the areas of regulatory and compliance matters, as well as commercial law and M&A. She has also been involved in assisting clients in competition related litigation regarding the annulment and reduction of fines imposed by the Romanian Competition Council in several cases concerning anticompetitive practices.