

Jan Bruil – European Gas / LNG Markets Specialist

Jan Bruil is a Senior Consultant with Poten's Natural Gas & LNG Consulting group. Jan has more than twenty years of consulting experience across the energy and downstream hydrocarbon processing industries. Over the past eight years at Poten he has worked on many client assignments in the gas and LNG sectors, covering natural gas markets and pricing, particularly in Europe. The most recent assignments have examined the potential role for Europe in balancing the global LNG market and competition against traditional suppliers to Europe. Before joining Poten, he led Gas Strategies Group's energy pricing work as Manager of Analytics, including natural gas pricing analysis which was central to several price negotiations, as well as several successful price arbitration cases. Jan holds a Master's degree in Chemical Engineering from Cambridge University and postgraduate qualifications in manufacturing engineering, management and finance.
