

Julian Bowden worked for BP on downstream oil and international gas, mainly in planning, strategy, and business development roles. His career in BP included postings to company offices in Moscow and Brussels. On gas, he was heavily involved in marketing and transportation aspects of the southern gas corridor project bringing gas from Azerbaijan to Europe. He is currently a senior visiting research fellow at the Oxford Institute for Energy Studies (OIES). For OIES he has published reports on gas in SE Europe and on oil & gas in the Caspian region.

He holds a B.Soc.Sci (Russian studies) and M.Soc.Sci, both from University of Birmingham.
