

Brief Bio of the Speaker Giorgi Tatishvili

Giorgi Tatishvili's career in upstream business spans more than 20 years. He has been serving as a Head of State Agency of Oil and Gas of Georgia for over 10 years. Mr. Tatishvili is one of the co-authors of licensing and reforms in the fossil sector in Georgia. He holds a Master Degree in Reservoir Engineering alongside a PHD in Business Administration.

Presentation Content

- Upstream sector management and benefits in Georgia
- Offshore tender information (including financial details)
- Prospective onshore projects
- Legislative novelties related to energy transactions