

Kutalmış Ersoy

Kutalmış Ersoy is a qualified lawyer with extensive experience in the European gas and power markets, offering regulatory and compliance guidance to businesses in the energy sector. Currently based in Brussels, Kutalmış serves as Secretary for Türkiye at the Zero Emissions Traders Alliance (ZETA), a non-profit organisation committed to advancing "net zero" markets across the GCC and MENA regions. He collaborates with governments and stakeholders to adapt carbon-reducing trade schemes and green bond programs from advanced markets, promoting sustainable energy solutions. His expertise encompasses energy contract negotiations, energy-related dispute resolution, and energy market design and trading. He is actively engaged in technical assistance projects across multiple countries, focusing on energy market design, standardisation, and legislative development. Kutalmış holds an LLM from King's College London