

Levent Caner

Levent has more than 25 years of experience in the energy sector and currently serves as Deputy General Manager at Borusan EnBW Energy, overseeing sales and trading of 725 MW renewable energy portfolio with a $400 million annual turnover.

Previously, he led Oil&Gas E&P projects in Genel Energy PLC along with unconventional production in US. He has experience in waste to energy projects and managed investment strategies at Sepil Holding A.Ş. at upstream oil&gas sector. Levent's expertise includes renewable energy, oil and gas, trading and market development.