

Serhat Uludag

Serhat is a renewable energy and energy transition enthusiast with experience in both renewables and hydrocarbons. His 20 years of experience in energy mainly concentrates in renewable energy and energy trading, mainly in power and gas. He is currently on the Board of Advisors for the digital energy management startup FlexyWatt, and is the Director for Natural Gas Trading and Business Development in Naturelgaz, a leading virtual pipeline CNG company. Previously, he held the country head position in AXPO, and was the head of energy trading company of ENGIE in Türkiye. His professional experience spans FMCG, IT, and management consultancy fields as well as energy, whereas his company experience includes Siemens, Philip Morris and AT Kearney.