

Manfred Cadez holds a Master degree in business administration from the University of Business Administration and Economics in Vienna (Austria) and has more than 30 years of experience in the oil & gas industry, thereof 15 years in gas transmission & distribution.

He started his professional career at Siemens (1989 – 1993) in the Finance department. In 1994 he joined OMV group and worked in the Austrian operations in the areas of Treasury, Accounting and Controlling. Manfred held senior management positions in Libya, New Zealand and Kazakhstan where he also served on the Board of Directors (2003 – 2011).

Back in Austria in 2011 he joined OMV Gas (now Gas Connect Austria) and subsequently lead teams in Controlling and Accounting & Tax. Since 2015 Manfred has been working in the regulatory segment and represents Gas Connect Austria in various working groups both national and international.

Manfred acted as Senior Advisor in the market business area during a 3-year secondment to the European Network of Transmission System Operators for Gas (ENTSO-G) in Brussels until September 2024. Subsequently, he rejoined GCA's Sales Transmission & Distribution Department.