

Ion Lupulescu, Country Manager for Moldova, Romanian Commodities Exchange

Ion Lupulescu is a professional with over 15 years of experience in the financial and energy sectors, specialized in management, financial analysis and commodities markets.

He currently holds the position of Country Manager for the Republic of Moldova at the Romanian Commodities Exchange, where he coordinates the development and operations of the local subsidiary, contributing to the opening and developing operations of the first commodities and energy exchange in Moldova.

Previously, he worked as a Project Manager at Allianz Trade and Coface Romania, where he played a key role in opening and developing operations in western Romania. He has advanced studies in corporate finance and is currently pursuing a PhD in geoeconomics and natural resources at University of Bucharest.