

Minister of Environment and Mineral Resources of Ukraine

Proskuriakov Oleg Albertovich

Born on 13 February 1968 in village Topar, Karaganda oblast, Kazakhstan.

Education:

- in 1992 graduated from Kyiv University named after T. Shevchenko, qualification – "geological engineer".

Work experience:

- August-November 1992 – technician, engineer of Modern Marine Sedimentogenesis Department, Institute of Geological Sciences of Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kyiv;
- 1992-1996 – postgraduate of Institute of Geological Sciences of Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kyiv;
- 1996-2006 – held executive positions in business corporations;
- October-December 2006 – General Director of DC "Krimgeologia" of NJSC "Nadra Ukrayiny", Simferopol;
- 2006-2008 – Head of State Geological Service of the Ministry of Natural Environment Protection of Ukraine, Kyiv;
- 2008-2010 – held executive positions in business corporations;
- December 2010 – January 2011 – counsellor to the Chairman of Board of NJSC "Nadra Ukrayiny", Kyiv;
- 2011-2012 – Chairman of Board of National Joint-Stock Company "Nadra Ukrayiny";
- 2012 – Head of State Service for Geology and Mineral Resources of Ukraine
- 2012 – Minister of Environment and Mineral Resources of Ukraine

Awards:

- V.I. Luchytskyi Medal (2007);
- L.I. Lutugin Medal (2007);
- Honorary Subsoil Prospector (2011);
- Commemorative token "For Major Contribution to the Development of Geological Field"

I degree (August 2011)

II degree (December 2011)

III degree (March 2012)

Married, has 2 children.